COMMENTS

Custom built, one owner home located in a tranquil setting and offering many amenities. As you approach from the driveway with the natural landscaping, you instantly get a feeling of comfort and luxury. This home is in a private setting. As you enter the grand entrance to a large foyer with the staircase to your left and expansive great room to your right, you are greeted by lots of natural lighting from the massive window and French doors which lead out onto a large private deck overlooking nature and a gazebo for quiet reflection. Lots of room for large furniture and to enjoy the ambiance of the fireplace. The spacious eat in kitchen has lots of cabinets, stainless appliances and granite counters plus another door leading to the rear deck. There are four large bedrooms upstairs with a bonus room on the first floor that could be a guest room or office. Plus, a craft or art room for the creative person. The primary bedroom is large and can accommodate large furniture and has a luxurious bathroom. This home is a must-see little slice of heaven and only minutes away from all shore points, beaches, boardwalks, shopping and hospital. For the man of the house there is a two car attached garage with lots of cabinets and a workshop. Some furniture may be included. Inventory list will be provided.
