COMMENTS

1 YEAR OLD HOME. Carolina Farmhouse model at the newly completed Seaview Crossings development. An Extremely appealing and versatile home that offers the desired features that today's new home buyers are looking for! When you walk through the double door entryway from the covered front porch you are greeted to the open floor plan and cathedral ceilings encompassing the large kitchen with center island, living room and dining room with clear vision through to the rear covered porch and backyard. The large 18' x 15' Master retreat also has a large master bath and walk in closet. The other side of the home features 2 additional large bedrooms with a shared bathroom. The main floor also features a 12' x 15' study/bedroom, laundry room and pantry. The metal roof accents, clean design and side entry 1.5 car garage make this a very desirable home for families of all sizes. The 2nd floor offers another bedroom, full bath and large mechanical room with plenty of room to use as a walk up attic. The home also backs up to the Cape May County bike trail and has a security system. This is virtually staged.
