COMMENTS

Searching for a beautiful home that offers size, serenity, or sociability? 3410 Siena Way offers it all! Step inside this exceptionally maintained 3 Bed/2.5 Bath awaiting a new owner. You are first greeted by a stunningly landscaped exterior leading to a side entrance that offers privacy upon arrival. Step inside to a view of the large family room which boasts a vaulted ceiling and gas fireplace along with the formal dining room that will lead you towards the kitchen while the offers of a recently updated half bath are available on your way through. With an abundance of space, entertaining is no problem with this kitchen! Cook like a pro on the Wolf Gas Stove and serve up some meals to be enjoyed at the kitchen island or table. Step out and relax in the four seasons room or get some fresh air while sitting out back on the patio or deck while enjoying your sizable fenced in yard. Once you are ready to wrap up your day and wind down, enjoy the space the main floor primary bedroom offers with the recently renovated primary bath. Use of the upstairs offers a sizeable loft space, two additional bedrooms, and another recently renovated full bath. With a full basement the options are endless for use as you will see room for plenty of storage and additional entertaining space in the partially finished basement. Not only has this home had several updates and upgrades all within the past 7 years but the seller is also offering a one-year home warranty for the new owner! One tour of this home is all you will need to start planning where your furniture will fit best!
