Unique chalet style home on one level with open layout, cathedral ceilings and wood beams in the main living areas. The heart of this home is the great room with a large wall of floor to ceiling eastern facing windows. On one end is the cozy living area with brick floor to ceiling gas log fireplace. On the other end is the dining room and also a part of this room is the open kitchen with center island and breakfast bar. Laminate, wood look floors run through out most of the home. The main bedroom offers an ensuite bath and vaulted ceilings and then there's two other bedrooms and a hall bath. Outside there's a huge wood deck for your family and friends to enjoy which overlooks a large yard. You've missed the beautiful flowering gardens that surround this home but you'll be in for a treat next spring and summer when everything starts blooming again. Also offers a shed for storage. Located on a wide open street facing the woods for privacy. Being sold as is but with a little TLC this home offers so much potential. Don't miss out!
