Marvel at the breathtaking ocean views from this first-floor Northend beach block condo! Step into this beautifully maintained residence, hosting a great room with an open-concept design that seamlessly integrates the kitchen, dining, and living areas, all leading to the inviting front porch. From this vantage point, the spectacular ocean and boardwalk views are simply unparalleled, making it feel as if you could reach out and touch the waves right from your doorstep. The great room showcases a thoughtful design geared towards maximizing space, perfect for family gatherings after a day at the beach. Whether you're enjoying breakfast around the center island, relaxing with a good show in the living room, or savoring a meal in the dining area, the open layout suits every occasion. Down the hallway from the great room lie three bedrooms and two full baths, which include the primary suite and bathroom, accompanied by a convenient laundry closet. Every comfort and luxury has been thoughtfully included: gas heating, central air, gleaming hardwood floors, granite countertops, elegant cabinetry, stainless steel appliances, a gas fireplace, recessed lighting, and fully-tiled bathrooms. Discover an outdoor shower, ample storage, off-street parking, and an attached garage. Presently used as a second home, this gem was and will be again a fantastic investment opportunity.
