Here is your chance to be one of the fortunate few who live on New Jersey's "West Coast." This charming bayfront home offers sweeping views of Delaware Bay, with fishing, kayaking, and having fun in the sand just steps away. A private path leads you to the beach, where gazing at breathtaking sunsets will become a treasured part of your daily routine. The property features a two-bedroom main house with a covered back porch and a spacious deck overlooking the bay—perfect for relaxing and entertaining with stunning water views. Plus, there's a bonus one-bedroom, one-bath guest cottage, ideal for hosting extended family and friends or can be used as a rental. The outdoor space between the main house and the guest cottage provides additional space for outdoor enjoyment. With off-street parking for three cars, central air, and natural gas heating, this bayfront retreat is as comfortable as it is picturesque. Enjoy the peace and serenity this Bayfront location offers. Just 20 minutes to the Cape May and Wildwood beaches.
