In addition, the first-floor boasts two functional living spaces: one inviting GREAT room with cathedral ceilings as well as fans and accented with a built-in gas log fireplace and connected to the rear deck via double sliding doors (with an automatic metal security safety gate) and second space perfect to entertain for the holidays, special occasions or maybe a home office facing the front of the property, right off the dining room. The property extends to the back wooded area where you can enjoy nature or check with the city for their agricultural zoning laws. The home is zoned Residential and Agricultural. The purpose of the Residential-Agricultural (RA) District is to provide for a district in which the principal use of the land is for low-density residential and agricultural purposes. This district is designed to encourage the preservation and provide protection of agricultural, forestry, and limited extraction. So much to enjoy on Princeton Ave. Don't miss the opportunity!
