COMMENTS

Welcome to 34 E Lee Ave! This charming cape code is located on a nice residential street and ready for its next owner. Enter to find an open front den with a private office/studio/playroom. This foyer has a window box that opens the space up to the large main living area with plenty of natural light. It is virtually staged to show the possibilities but has space for a comfortable living room and dining area. The kitchen is open to the main living space with a nice sized, eat-in, kitchen peninsula, and galley cabinet layout, adorned with a large pantry. The first floor also holds a full bathroom, two bedrooms, and access to the basement, second floor, and backyard. The second floor has three rooms, one is open and in between the two rooms on opposing sides. The basement is perfect for storage and houses the laundry and mechanical equipment. The backyard is fenced, spacious, and boasts a newer shed. This home has a two zone air conditioning system, was freshly painted, and ready to move into! Priced to sell and ready for you!
